PREFACE

Our four very memorable years at Enfield High are coming to a close.
The Senior Class of 1989 has grown closer and together we've had good times.
But the times are going by quickly.
If we can't keep the times,
at least we can hold the memories.

DEDICATION

We, the Seniors, are pleased to dedicate this year's 1989 Echo Yearbook to Mr. Kenneth St. George. His previous education and own personal experiences have enhanced the curriculum of our Science Department. He not only has opened his door to students but also opened his heart to make each of us a friend. For this, we proudly honor him.

SENIOR OFFICERS

As we say good-bye to the familiar, here at Enfield High School, we remember the people that have guided us to this point in our lives.

We thank the dedicated faculty for having taught us more than the 3 R's. We appreciate their care and guidance which have given us direction to develop our identities. Their efforts will be rewarded through our accomplishments.

Leaving the friends that we have grown with is perhaps the most difficult change. Our relationships have shown us our likenesses and differences, but have always allowed us to enjoy the good times together and weather the bad.

We anticipate and fear, are anxious and hesitant, all at once. We comfort ourselves by knowing that although we are separating, we take a piece of our experiences and of each other on with us to share with and better the world.

Congratulations and Best Wishes!

- Tracy Callan

- 1 — Amy Nosal, Vice-President
- 2 — Barbara Lucas, Secretary
- 3 — Stephanie Olender, Treasurer
